Division of Banks

STONEHAMBANK – A CO-OPERATIVE BANK, Stoneham, Massachusetts (BANK), has petitioned the Division of Banks (Division) pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws chapters 167H and 167I for permission to reorganize the BANK into a mutual holding company structure. This multi-step transaction will involve the creation of an interim mutual cooperative bank, which will reorganize into a mutual holding company under the name 1887 BANCORP, MHC (MHC) with a subsidiary cooperative banking institution in stock form. Thereupon, the BANK will then merge with and into the newly formed stock cooperative bank and operate under the name STONEHAMBANK – A CO-OPERATIVE BANK. Applications addressing the statutory requirements of the reorganization and seeking all related authorities have been filed with the Division.

In determining whether or not to approve the applications, the Division must decide, among other things, whether competition among banking institutions will be unreasonably affected and whether public convenience and advantage will be promoted by these proposals.

Any objections or comments relative to this proposed reorganization must be communicated in writing to the Commissioner of Banks, One Federal Street, Suite 710, Boston, MA 02110 or via electronic mail to dob.comments@mass.gov prior to the close of business on July 6, 2026. The applications and all communications relative to these matters are available from the Division by request at dob.rao@mass.gov.
